Students that wish to attend the conference without signing up for an event are more than welcome to do so, but must still pay the registration fee.

This is a great learning experience and will help you to better understand what a TSA competition is all about. Even if you're not competing, you will get a TSA conference T-shirt, lunch and be able to attend all the TSA District conference events.

Attire: No jeans. Please dress in dress pants and shoes. Students will wear their TSA conference T-shirts, which will be handed out a few days before the conference.

I _____ give permission for _____ to attend and participate in the Manatee County TSA District Competition.

Parent Signature: _____ Emergency Contact: (____) - ____ - _____

Anyone that agrees to judge, will not be required to pay the 35.00-dollar registration fee. There is no guarantee that a judge position will be available. However, if you have judged in the past for the district competition and are willing to fill in as an event judge should one be needed, please circle "Judge" above. I will notify you if you're needed. Please add your email.
